The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

BISHOP INGRAM'S SERMON.

The Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, Bishop of London, who has come to this country as the bearer of a gift Bible from the King of England for the first Episcopal chapel established in America—Bruton Church, at Williamsburg Va., preached at noon yesterday in Trinity Church, New York.

The bishop had much to say about the abuse of wealth and declared that the one most important message which he could give was that life is a stewardship, not an ownership. This, he declared, was as yet unlearned in both New York and London.

Furthermore, the bishop—who has been frequently called a socialist—let it be thoroughly understood that he is not the sort of person that the world commonly suggests. But he is very democratic, and so was the audience that heard him. Among others things he said:

"I know not to whom I am preaching. I shall be as frank here as I am in London. No man who is really a Christian would soil his Christian hands with one dollar the possession of which he could not justify in the sight of heaven."

"The one thing," he continued, "the one sentence, which above all others I would say to you, a sentence as yet unlearned in London and New York, and which if adopted would cleanse the life on both sides of the Atlantic is—life is a stewardship, and not an ownership.

"Have you ever thought why there are any rich and poor at all? That is the question I have had to face in London. They have asked me how I reconciled the belief in the good God loving all his children with the wretched million in East London, who seem abandoned by both God and man. I had to face that question and have had to face it ever since. There is but one answer—the rich minority have what they have merely in trust for all the others. Stewardship, not ownership, is God's command to every one of us.

"You are not your own. Nothing that you have is your own. We haven't learned the Christian religion if we have not learned the lesson of stewardship.

"My home has been the home of the bishops of London for 1,300 years. Suppose I should say that it was my own, and that the bishop's income from $50,000 a year was my own. I would be called a madman. The man who thinks he owns what he has in his keeping is no less a madman. This applies alike to the boy and his pocket money and to the millionaire and his millions. Disregard of this trust is the cause of all the social evils of London and New York. If every man considered himself as a steward there would be no object in dishonesty. Stewardship would do away with the tyranny of capital.

"Let every man, be he rich or poor," continued the preacher, "ask himself how he gains his money and how he distributes it, and let him test his stewardship by these questions and his answers to them."

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.

FLOODS IN FRANCE AND SPAIN

Dispatches from Madrid say that unprecedented rains in Andalusia have caused immense destruction of life and property. The Guadalmedina river has been converted into a raging torrent three miles wide, and bridges, houses and even entire villages have been swept away by the flood. The streets in the lower part of Malaga, capital of the province of that name in Andalusia, have been inundated, and many families have been rendered homeless. Considering the heaviness of the floods, the loss of life has not been great. So far as can be learned, 166 persons have perished. Railroad communication has been destroyed. The governor of Malaga has appealed for assistance from the government, fearing that the decaying carcasses of cattle and other animals drowned in the flood will create an epidemic.

Advices from Agde, France, say that storms, accompanied by torrential rains, have flooded the Valley of the Herault, and the river has already overflowed the plain between Agde and Florenac and is rapidly rising. The wharves at Agde are inundated, the village of Vernise is under water and other villages are entirely cut off from communication with the towns. The railroad tracks are covered with water making traffic impossible. The shipping at the mouth of the river Herault is endangered by the great amount of wreckage which is floating out to sea. Troops are aiding in the work of rescue, especially in taking people from the roofs of their houses, where they sought refuge from the floods. The destruction of property is very great, especially in the case of the vineyards.

SQUIRE IS "MORTIFIED."

"Something must have planted her there, squire," argued S. L. Cover, who is a justice of peace in Verona, Pa., to his rival, Justice Fisher, before whom he was brought on complaint of Joseph White. "I never was more surprised in my life," he said, "then when I was awakened in my own room on September 16 by White and two other men. In the room was a beautiful young woman, whom I discovered to be Mrs. White. I say I was shocked. I was sound asleep and did not know of the embarrassing situation I had been placed in until I was awakened. Somebody must have put the woman in the room while I slept. I am deeply mortified." Justice Fisher said the court would have to pass on Squire Cover's mortification, and he bound him over. White explained that he had suspected his wife and had invited two friends to accompany him to Cover's house, so he could have witnesses.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 27, 1907.

THE Protestant Episcopal Church of Baltimore is making a movement toward reaching the masses of the people by not waiting for people to come to the churches, but by going after them. Those engaged in the propaganda will conduct street preaching, or will go anywhere in order to secure hearers. The plan will be put into operation on Sunday October 6, when a meeting will be held at the entrance of Fort McHenry. The plan of street preaching was decided upon by Bishop Paret. In a recent article in the Maryland Churchman he discussed the subject throughly. He is convinced that it will be successful. It was by his work in the so-called East End of London that Bishop Ingram first made his mark as a clergyman. He began by house-to-house work among the poor and in the slums, and before long was preaching to great throngs in the parks and anywhere else that he could get an audience together. No conventional restraints, of the sort which many of his brethern seemed to feel, served to hold back the young priest when he considered that he could reach the people of his neighborhood. Open-air debates with agnostics were features of his work in the East End.

THE LATE Dr. Livingstone was once asked if lions in Africa caused him apprehension while he was exploring the dark continent. The doctor replied by saying there was more danger of a man being killed by London omnibuses than of being injured by lions. The danger of being killed or crippled by cars or vehicles in a large city is but little realized by the thousands who are compelled to move through the congested streets. It is said that a life is lost every fifteen hours in New York under the wheels of a passenger car, surface, elevated, or steam. In twenty-six days 145 persons were hurt in car collisions, and 465 in collisions between cars and vehicles. Once in each hour and twenty nine minutes of the period some person was struck by a car, making a total of 405. Sixty-four persons were injured in boarding cars, and 1,263 were injured in alighting from them. Employes to the number of 641 were hurt; 33 persons were hurt in derailments; 26 prospective passengers fell down stairways, and 1,881 persons were hurt in unclassified ways. A total of 5,500 were either killed or injured in the twenty-six days.

THE President, after a conference with the Secretary of the Navy on the subject of shipping coal to the Pacific coast for the use of the fleet, announced yesterday that, while he regarded the Navy Department as fully warranted under the law in employing foreign vessels for this purpose, provided the cost of transportation in American bottoms was extortionate or even unreasonable, he would not regard $200,000 as an excessive sum to pay over and above the bids of foreign vessel owners for the sake of employing American ships. Why, certainly not! What is a paltry $200,000 of the public money to the administration? Then, too, a presidential election is to be held next year and the rich ship owners are expected to contribute liberally to the republican campaign fund.

OUR boasted Atlantic fleet," says The Navy, "is no more fit to make an an early appearance in battle trim in the waters of the Pacific than was the ill-fated armada commanded by Rojestvensky." These are strong words; but The Navy backs them up by pointing out deficiencies in sufficient detail to convince the skeptical. That the proposed excursion is an exhibition of "vainglory and cheap politics" is a conclusion which, however uncomplimentary to the authorities, seems to be true. And it is known to be so to the naval attaches of every country represented in Washington. The Philadelphia Record says nothing relating to the actual condition of our navy is concealed from anybody but from the American public.

IT is reported that a Cleveland chemist has perfected a method of securing illuminating gas from corn cobs, stalks and straw. The process is very similar to that employed in manufacturing gas from coal. The heating power of this gas is said to be much greater than that of coal gas, and it is believed that eventually it can be manufactured with such economy as to permit of its being sold at 50 cents per 1,000 feet. Thirty per cent. of the original weight of the material remains after the gas is extracted, and this can be used to feed the boilers. Such discoveries are very timely when the price of coal is annually advancing.

ADOLPH HARNACK, professor of church history in the University of Berlin, in a new book, entitled "Luke the Physician," just published in Germany and America, announces his conclusion that the third gospel and the book of Acts were written by the same hand—that of St. Luke.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, Sept. 27.

"If Roosevelt keeps out of the way, Joe Cannon will be the next President," asserted Senator Cullom, of Illinois today after a visit to the White House. "No one can deny that 'Joe' Cannon is splendidly equipped for the place, that he is a magnificent campaigner, and that he is popular with the people in all sections of the country. He also has the friendship of all other fellows who are after the job, and I believe that when the show-down comes he will get the vote—if Roosevelt keeps out of the way.

When President Roosevelt comes back from his forthcoming middle western and southern trip, his friends believe he will have reached a definite decision on the third term question. By the time he leaves Memphis on October 4th he will know how strong the "Taft sentiment" is in the States through which he has traveled and will be able to make an estimate of the war secretary's value as a presidential candidate. If he finds the Taft boom strong it is more than likely that the President will continue to throw all his strength in the direction of the Ohioan. If on the contrary, he sees indications of the Taft boom collapsing the President may be expected to announce his own candidacy.

Things are in a great stew at the War and Navy Department today as the result of charges in newspapers that there is an organization of army and navy officers to lobby for the salary increase bill, designed to benefit men in the army, navy, marine corps and revenue cutter service.

Bishop Satterlee, of Washington, was an early caller upon Secretary of the Navy Metcalf today and it was rumored that as the representative of the Bishop of London, Bishop Satterlee was asking the Secretary to umpire the tennis match tomorrow between the English Episcopal dignitary and President Roosevelt.

William N. Wyand, aged 20 years, was today indicted by the federal grand jury for forgery. He is the son of the president of the Wyand Turbine Engine Company, of Trenton, N. J. He passed worthless papers on a local patent attorney and then attempted to purchase an automobile on a worthless check. No move has been made by the young man's parents to help him out of the troubles.

Answer was filed today in the District Supreme Court on behalf of the American Federation of Labor to the suit brought by the Bucks Stove & Range Co., of St. Louis, to enjoin the publication of the "boycott" list in the official organ of the federation. The answer denies most of the allegations of the complainant.

In spite of the recent announcement that the new union station in Washington was to be occupied by the Baltimore and Ohio, the Pennsylvania and other railroads on October 1, which would be Tuesday of next week, there is now a strong possibility of another postponement for at least a month. The street railways facilities at the new union station are still poor and must remain unsatisfactory, until Congress gives the street railways the right to lay additional tracks.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The twenty-second annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, now in Washington, at yesterday afternoon's session, held in Continental Hall, elected officers for the ensuing year. The Rt Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, Bishop of Washington, delivered an address of welcome, and introduced District Commissioner Macfarland, who welcomed the visiting delegates to the city.

The election of officers resulted in the selection of James L. Houghteling, of Chicago, founder of the brotherhood, president; Franklin S. Edwards, of Philadelphia; Arthur H. Young, of Toronto, Canada, and G. T. Armstrong, of Jamaica, West India, as secretaries. Vice-presidents will be chosen to represent the four national councils.

Discussion of the opportunity of members to win their fellow-men to Christ, punctuated with forceful thoughts from distinguished Episcopal clergymen upon the duty of self-sacrific and concentrated efforts for a definite object, characterized the day's session of the convention. The report of the international committee pointed out that it was within the power of the brotherhood laymen to extend the cause of Christianity in every walk of life, and the keynote of each address, morning, afternoon and evening, was for the living of more godly lives and the demonstration of a greater Christian missionary spirit in civic and political life.

An interesting feature of the session in the afternoon was the responsive address of Archdeacon Tuttle, of the West Indies, to the addresses of welcome of James L. Houghteling, president of the convention; Commissioner Macfarland, and Dr. Samuel H. Greene, of Washington.

Bishop Woodcock urged churchmen to extend help to others. He was the chief speaker at the evening session.

MRS. SWANSON.

The little town of Edgewater, N. J., has completely lost its heart to Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, wife of the Governor of Virginia, who has been visiting there at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henri Bohmer. Gov. Swanson was one of the speakers at the meeting of the Bankers' Association in Atlantic City, and when he came north he brought his handsome young wife with him. She is known as "the Mrs. Cleveland of Richmond," because of her beauty, charm of manner and her great simplicity. With her two sisters, Mrs. Bohmer and Mrs. Cunningham Hall, of Richmond, she reigns supreme in Virginia society, the sisters being called "the Three Graces of Virginia." Their father was Peter Lyons, a prominent Richmond physician, and on their mother's side they are descended from Francis Deane, another noted medical man. Mrs. Swanson's girlhood was spent in the historic village of Ashland, Henry Clay's birthplace. As the "first lady" of her State, and the hostess ex-officio of the Jamestown Exposition, she has entertained many world celebrities.—[Philadelphia North American.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 27.—There was aggressive bear selling and some liquidation in the stock market this morning that caused further declines in nearly all the issues traded in prices at the end of the hour ranging generally 1 to nearly 2 points below yesterday's closing figures. Railroad and other bonds were irregular. After the first hour the selling pressure disappeared and the market assumed a steadier tone with a general fractional recovery in prices.

The State democratic committee met in Richmond yesterday but failed to get a quorum. The cases to have been considered were those of Goochland and Fluvanna for the House nomination and a petty office in one of the districts in Amherst. It is thought that the lack of general interest in the two cases is responsible for the absence of members.

At the services incident to the laying of the corner stone of the Southern Methodist Church at Ilda, Fairfax county, yesterday, addresses were delivered by Rev. E. V. Regester, presiding elder of Washington District, and Rev. Charles D. Bulla, of Alexandria. Rev. Mr. Regester will also make an address at the dedication of the M. E. The royal Bible which King Edward VII will present to Old Bruton Church, at Williamsburg in commemmoration of the tercentenary of the establishment of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country, is one of the most magnificent Bibles which has ever been designed. The Bible will be presented to the church at the special ceremonies to be held on October 12, and the King has sent the Right Rev. Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram, Lord Bishop of London, as his special representative to make the presentation. Further interest is added to the ceremony through the fact that President Roosevelt will present to the old church a lectern, symbolical of "peace" and international relationship, and upon this lectern the royal Bible will repose.

The republicans of the Seventh senatorial district met at Clifton Forge yesterday and nominated J. W. C. Bryant, jr., of that place, for the Senate, to oppose F. W. King, the democratic nominee. An effort was made in the convention to name C. L. Lemon, of Craig county, but the Bryant forces won out by ten majority on roll call. The action of the convention is considered a victory for the anti-Slemp republicans and a defeat for the federal officeholders. It is also favorable to Fairbanks for President. Following the senatorial convention the delegates to the legislative convention met and nominated by acclamation L. W. Farrier, of Clifton Forge, for the house of delegates. N. C. Specard, of Craig, is the democratic candidate.

WEDDING AT BLUEFIELD.

The beautifully decorated Church of the Sacred Heart was at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the scene of one of the greatest social events that has taken place in this city for some time when Mr. Martin J. Welch, of Niagara Falls, led to the matrimonial altar Miss Annie M., the attractive and accomplished daughter of Col and Mrs. C. O'Leary.

The church was crowded soon after the doors were opened with their many friends from this locality and distant cities. The ceremony was solemnized by Father E. Oliver, of the bride's church, assisted by Father Grace, pastor of the groom's church.

The bridal party entered promptly at 5 o'clock to the strains of Mendelssohn's glorious wedding march from the accomplished hands of Miss Gertrude Watts. Messrs. W. W. Bentley and W. N. Pack, the ushers, coming first, followed by the groom and best man, Mr. Geo. O'Leary, and the bride and maid of honor, Miss Jennie Welch. The service opened with the beautiful solo, "Oh, Promise Me," sung in masterful manner by Professor C. W. Patterson who, the general opinion was, sang better than ever he has been heard to before. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of Col. O'Leary, on Princeton avenue, where a sumptuous supper was served, after which a reception was tendered their many friends. The happy couple left on No. 16 for an extended tour of eastern cities, after which they will go to Niagara Falls, where Mr. Welch is in the stationery business, there to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Welch received many handsome and expensive presents, consisting of cut glass, furniture, silverware, table linens and jewelry, also a substantial check from the colonel.—[Bluefield, West Virginia, Ledger.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Investigating Standard Oil.

New York, Sept. 27.—That Frank B. Kellogg intends to drive his probe deep into the very heart of the complicated and mysterious inner workings of the Standard Oil Company of New York became more apparent today when it was learned that he had summoned Joseph Seep, of Oil City, Pa., and P. S. Trainer to appear here in the suit of the government to dissolve the parent corporation. Seep is in charge of the Seep Agency, which buys all the crude oil purchased by the Standard of New Jersey from any source. After Seep has bought it, the oil passes into the "ownership," whose name appears as the shipper on all the books of the pipe line companies. Kellogg is anxious to know all about these little peculiarities of the Standard's system, and will seek to force the witnesses to tell why such measures are taken. He has become greatly interested in the pipe lines since he learned that the Indiana Pipe Line made 400 per cent. profit in 1903 on its capital of $1,000,000.

George Chesbro, controller and secretary of the Standard pipe lines, states that the Buckeye Pipe Line company "deposited with" the National Transit Company its surplus funds, maintaining an average approximately of $5,000,000 The plant cost $9,095,967 and in 1906 earned $7,028,568. The "deposits" appeared on the balance sheets in Kellogg's hands as "loans," but he insisted they were deposits. "We used the National Tansit Company as our bank," he explained.

It developed that the National Pipe Line Company has paid the Standard of New York over $5,000,000, in rentals for the use of the newly discovered pipe line which extends under the Hudson river, across Manhattan Island under Central Park, and under the East river to Long Island City. No one outside of the Standard people knew this line existed until this investigation began.

Oil Tank Explodes.

New York, Sept. 27.—Two men are known to have been killed and a third is missing and probably dead as a result of the explosion of a 20,000 gallon oil tank of the Bronx Gas and Electric Company's property in the northern part of the city. The tank has been used as a storage place for crude oil, used in sprinkling the tracks where automobile races are frequently held in the neighborhood. James Cooper, Richard Smith and James Reilly, three men employed in sprinkling these tracks, visited the tank last night and were filling their carts when the explosion occurred. A pillar of flame shot up from the tank, the lid of which was blown high in the air, landing beside the Catholic Protectory Association building, some distance away, and causing a panic among the 1,500 inmates. Volunteer firemen found Cooper lying some distance from the tank with his clothing in flames. He died on his way to the nearest hospital. Another body was found close by, but so badly charred that it was impossible to discern whether it was that of Smith or Reilly. It was impossible to extinguished the fire in the tank, and the flames were permitted to burn themselves out. The fire was started by a lantern carried by one of the sprinkling cart men.

Attempted Abduction.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 27.—One of the boldest kidnappings in Rochester police annals was perpetrated at 7 a. m. today when four Italians seized pretty 15-year-old Filomena Di Ponizio, daughter of Michael Di Ponizio, as she was going to work, and throwing her into a closed carriage drove rapidly away. The kidnapping was in sight of the girl's home and neighbors witnessed it. Within two hours the kidnappers and the victim were overhauled at Scottsville. Police followed the kidnappers on motor cycles and in automobiles The quartette gave the names of Ruggioro Turbana, Orlandi, Antonio Berlondi, and Charles McDonald. The kidnappers are locked up at police headquarters. Turbano was formerly a boarder at the Di Ponizio home until his attentions to the girl caused her parents to ask Turbano to leave. Twice Turbano is said to have threatened the girl unless he was permitted to marry her.

Missing Financier.

New York, Sept. 27.—Neither the police nor private detectives engaged in the search have found the least clue to the whereabouts of Andrew McIntyre, one of the best known financiers of Birmingham, Ala. McIntyre's wife, the last person who saw him, says he left their rooms at the Marlborough Hotel at 9 a. m. Wednesday. There is not even a theory on which to work, and the missing man's striking appearance makes the case all the more baffling. McIntyre, who for ten years has spent some time in New York every summer, left his hotel saying he was going down town to keep a business appointment and would be back in two hours. Inquiry of the firm he was to have visited disclosed the fact that he never kept his appointment.

Death from Hydrophobia.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 27.—After a series of convulsions lasting 14 hours, Alfred Tivey is dead of hydrophobia at the Hartford Hospital. Six weeks ago Tivey was bitten in the face by a strange dog. He had the wound cauterized, but Wednesday complained of feeling ill and was waiting in a drug store for a dose of morphine when taken with convulsions. Tivey swallowed the solution with much difficulty and fell to the floor rigid. At the hospital serum was sent for from New York. Tivey was kept in a straight jacket. There were intervels between convulsion at first, but these soon ceased and the attacks that ended with his death were continuous.

Two Women Fatally Burned.

New York, Sept. 27.—Mrs. Latonia, aged 40, and her cousin Catherine Genco, aged 20, were fatally burned today in their home at 172 Essex street by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. With their arms locked around each other in frantic embrace the woman rolled into the street screaming with pain, but before help could arrive their clothing had been burned off and they were taken to the hospital in a dying condition. The house was damaged to the extent of $500.

One Thousand Girls Arrive.

New York, Sept. 27.—One thousand young and unmarried girls arrived here today on the steamer Baltic. Most of them expect to secure work here, and they are as attractive a lot of immigrants as has been landed in several years. They come from Ireland and England, and nearly all were met at Ellis Island by relatives.

Passenger Train Wrecked.

Harrisburg, Pa, Sept. 27.—A hurry call for physicians and a wrecking train has reached the offices of the Pennsylvania Railroad from Duncanon, 19 miles west of here, where, it is reported, a passenger train has been wrecked and half a dozen persons killed and several injured. The wrecking crew and a relief train have been dispatched to the scene.

All wires to the scene of the wreck are down and the local officials declare they have no positive information.

The train wrecked was the local which left here west bound at 10:40. It is declared to have ran into a stalled freight train one mile west of Duncanon.

Baltimore, Sept. 27.—At the office of the Superintendent of Pennsyvania Railroad at Union Station, it was said the death list would reach about fifteen persons.

The Striking Lasters.

Boston, Sept. 27.—By conspicuous advertisement in all the Boston papers today, the W. L. Douglass Shoe Company declares its intention of standing firm against the striking lasters, and asks for men to take the latter's places. The shoe trade regards the trouble as a crisis in the affairs of the National Shoe Workers' Union. The Douglass Company is under agreement with the union to employ members only in good standing, and advertises that only such will be accepted to take the places of those who left yesterday. The strikers belong to the local Brockton union, which recently seceded from the body. The strike followed the company's refusal to recognize the seceders' walking delegates, and if the latter can force the company to recognize them they will have won an important step in their effort to establish a national organization rivaling the present national body.

Fatal Plunge.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—With only a flickering spark of life left in his bruised body, Bert L. Lynch lies in St. Andrew's Hospital with no hope of recovering from his mad dash in an automobile over a 90-foot cliff into a stone quarry. Without giving any intimation of the desperate plunge he intended to make Lynch turned the machine in the direction of the long rock hole and turned on full speed. John Joss, who was in the automobile with Lynch, realized the situation just in time to leap to safety. Lynch and his automobile dashed on, turned, a double loop in the air and struck on the rocks below with terrific force. The young man had been seized by an insane impulse and evidently could not save himself from the plunge when he saw the deep quarry.

Harry Thaw.

New York, Sept. 27.—In a copyrighted article by Charles Somerville appearing in the New York Evening Journal today Harry K. Thaw, is quoted in the first direct interview he has given since the night of the Madison Square Garden tragedy. Thaw states his choice of lawyers for the next trial and expresses absolute certainty of his acquittal within the next six months. He pays a high tribute to the loyalty of his young wife, for love of whom he put himself in his present plight. Mr. Littleton will be chief counsel at the next trial, and Messrs. Hartridge and Gleason will be out of the case.

The Princess Louise.

Dresden, Sept. 27.—The King of Saxony presided at a meeting of the Saxon cabinet today at which it was decided to continue the allowance made to the former Crown Princess Louise, now Mme. Toselli. The king, however, announced that he intended to take her youngest child from her, and to that end two emissaries were dispatched to Rome to enlist the services of the Italian government in his behalf. The king also caused it to be announced that he will pay $1,000 for information of the place the child has been hidden by its mother.

Will Not be Called Out.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 27.—President Samuel J. Small of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union said positively today that leased wire and broker operators under contracts will not be called out in response to the New York local's request. "The action in New York was based on a purely local condition," said Mr. Small, "and it is the sense of the executive board that all contracts much be respected. It is my opinion that even verbal contracts should be binding."

Tribes Capitulating.

Tangier, Morocco, Sept. 27.—Four more of the rebellious Moorish tribes have accepted the French peace terms, leaving only six even nominally hostile. The remaining half dozen are believed to be holding out from fear of heavy punishment, and it is not likely they will not long refuse to accept General Drude's conditions when convinced that they will be required only to give guarantees of future good behavior.

Awaiting Attack.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 27.—If the armed negroes who have formed near Whistler, Ala., preparatory to attacking the whites of that town in reprisal for the lynching of the negro Dossett last Saturday, move on Whistler, they will be given a warm reception. Four hundred farmers from the vicinity, armed with Winchesters, are in Whistler awaiting an attack, and among them are some of the best shots in the south.

Searching for Assailant of Girls.

Newark, N. J., Sept. 27.—The male population of Bloomfield, N. J., is up in arms against the appearance during the past two weeks there of a mysterious individual who has made the less frequentee streets of the town unsafe for young girls. Ethel and Kathleen O'Connell, 10 and 8 years respectively, were on their way home in the Watsessing section last evening when they were attacked by a stranger. He dragged Ethel into a swamp, but, becoming freightened by the screams of the children, released her and disappeared. An alarm was sounded and James O'Connell, father of the children armed with a gun, headed a mob of two hundred men and a man hunt has been in progress ever since. They declare that the fellow will be summarily dealt with if captured.

Over Six Hundred Persons Drowned.

Victoria, Sept. 27.—Advices received here state more than 600 lives were lost through the sudden rise of the river Otonashigwa at the town of Fukuchiyama in Japan.

INCREASED ASSESSMENT OF RAILROAD PROPERTY.

The State of Virginia is undertaking, through Attorney General Anderson, to have the assessments of railroad rights of way, roadbed and track increased for purposes of taxation. The case was heard by the corporation commission in Richmond yesterday. The railroads are trying to show that such a thing would work a hardship and that it is contrary to the constitution of the State.

Major Anderson is taking the ground that the corporation commission has the right to fix the valuation of the roadbed, the right of way and the tracks each and every year that the constitution so directs, and that it is wholly within the province of the commission to increase the values of the property at any time. While members of the commission have said nothing on the subject, the very best of reasons exist for the belief that several of the roads will find their property to be worth more this year than it ever has been before; and that the basis for this increase is to be found in the actual operations of the companies as reported to the commission, and which shows that the earnings especially are reached by allowing 6 per cent. on the value of the property and the securities outstanding.

MOTOR BOAT RACE.

The motor boats "Kindo" and "Mae," owned respectively by Mr William E. Moore and Mr. R. Bruce Emerson, which raced last Saturday, will engage in another contest tomorrow afternoon. The race of last Saturday has done much to revive interest in aquatic sports in this city, and has demonstrated to the public generally that Alexandria has produced two boats that are little short of marvels for speed. The race tomorrow will not only reveal the speed, but also the endurance of each boat, for the course is a long one, starting as it does from a stake boat off Prince street, reaching to Marshall Hall wharf, and return, a distance of about twenty-two miles. Every detail of the race has been arranged, and the crew that crosses the finish line first will carry off the subscription purse of $100, contributed by business men of this city to promote motor boating. Both boats, it is understood, will be manned by the same crews that raced last Saturday, Mr. Emerson will be represented at the start and finish by Mr. J. H. Miller, in the stake boat 'Olga," and at Marshall Hall wharf he will be seconded by his relative, Mr. Victor Emerson, of Cincinnati, in the fast motor "It," of Washington, which will also carry the official representative of Mr. Moore. Mr. William Bryant has been selected as the official judge. The articles of agreement provide that the start shall be made not later than 3 o'clock, and it is expected the race will be concluded shortly after 4 o'clock.

Both boats have been the subject of much comment since the race of last Saturday, the victor in that race displaying a speed that has never been equalled on the Potomac by a boat of her size. Mr. Emerson's "Mae," while defeated, showed unusual staying powers, and considering the size of the boat and the horsepower of the engine, her speed was remarkable. It is expected that a much larger crowd will hie to the river front tomorrow than appeared last Saturday.

SILK MILL.

Through the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce of this city, the hosiery mill property, located at the southwest corner of Wilkes and Pitt streets, has been sold to the Bliss Silk Throwing Company, of Dickson City, Pa., which will install machinery for a silk-throwing mill and begin operations within the next week or two. The company is now operating four mills in Pennsylvania, but it desires to establish branches in the south. A considerable number of names have been received in response to a recent advertisement for operators but many more are desired. The company desires to begin operations with about one hundred operators. Girls and women from fourteen years upward will be employed in this mill. Expert lady teachers will be sent here to teach the force. If sufficient help can be obtained, another mill will be erected on the property of the company, as they have acquired sufficient ground to provide for future expansion of the business. Machinery for this mill has already been shipped, and Mr. Valentine Bliss, president of this company, is expected to reach this city this evening. This industry will fill a long-felt need in this city, as heretofore there have been but limited opportunities for girls and women to secure employment here, and this establishment will ultimately furnish employment for several hundred female operators.

NORTH UNION STREET.

The Southern Railway Company is paving the east side of Union street from Princess to Oronoco. Belgian block is being used and a substantial roadway and sidewalk is being constructed. When this work shall have been completed a mud hole will be eliminated which has for many years been a source of annoyance to persons going to or coming from Fishtown. While this improvement is being made, it is time to call attention to the condition of Union street from Cameron to Queen. There are three railroad tracks on that square, and there is now no longer any room for a sidewalk on the east side of the street. There is but a semblance of a narrow pavement on a part of the west side, and that is in bad condition and generally blocked. Should a roadway similar to that being laid two squares north be constructed on the west side of the street from Cameron to Queen conditions would be materially improved.

CAPTAIN FELL INTO HOLD.

Captain Thompson, of the three-masted schooner Cox & Green, now anchored off the shipyard, was the victim of a serious accident last night. He was walking on the deck when he was tripped by a rope and fell head-first into the hold. He was taken from the hold by members of the crew and later brought ashore and placed in the Alexandria Hospital where he was attended by Dr. T. M. Jones. Captain Thompson's head was seriously injured, as was also one of his legs. The Cox & Green is to load railroad ties for Boston.

STREET CAR SERVICE.

The improved street car service to be operated by the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway Company in this city will begin on Tuesday next. As has been stated, the car will make a round trip between the new union passenger station and the foot of King street about every twenty minutes. The company had made arrangements to operate the car the middle of this month, but were unable to do so in consequence of certain work which has been in progress on upper King street.

ORDERS FROM A DISTANCE.

The Emerston steam pumps, manufactured at the works in this city, have already attained a world-wide reputation. Orders were received today for pumps from Canada and Cuba, and a mechanical journal published in the East Indies, a copy of which has been received by the patentee, contains a description of the pumps, embellished with pictures of the same.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

DEATH OF COL. CRAIGHILL.

Col. Robert Templeton Craighill, aged sixty-four years, for many years a well-known citizen of Lynchburg, died suddenly yesterday after a brief illness of heart disease.

Col. Craighill was a member of Company B, Twelth Virginia Cavalry, in the Confederate army, and he served until wounded in 1863. After the war he read law and practiced that profession in Lynchburg. He was a member of the firm of Fetcher & Craighill, but in the early '80's retired from practice.

He was thirty-second-degree Mason, having filled all the offices of Marshall Lodge and the local chapter, and was past grand commander of the Virginia Grand Lodge. He was a member of Gov. Holliday's staff, 1877-1881. He was a communicant of Grace Memorial Episcopal Church, a teacher of a Bible class in the Sunday school, and a trustee of the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near Alexandria.

Col. Craighill was a native of Charlestown, W. Va., where a brother and two sisters live.

In September, 1865, Col. Craighill married Miss Elley Hotson, the adopted daughter of David R. Elley, who, with seven children, survives him.

The South Baltimore Street Car and Foundry Company, at Curtis Bay, has found it necessary to lay off part of its working force. This was due to a falling off in orders for the product. It was said that the company is now turning out only 30 finished cars a day, whereas for more than a year past its daily output has been nearly double this number.

WOODWARD & LOTHROP.

[Editorial in Hartford, Conn., Daily Courant.]

Collector P. Davis Oakley has voluntarily withdrawn the personal bond of $25,000, given for the proper performance of his duties, and has substituted the bond of a fidelity company for the same amount. This commendable action deserves a passing comment. Mr. Oakley found no difficulty whatever in getting bondsmen, but, whoever his bondsmen might be, there could be no denying that they had put the collector under a direct personal obligation to them. It is far more independent and self respecting, to go down into your own pocket for the premium and pay a corporation, chartered for the purpose, for giving its bond for you. This cost him some money, but with that he buys complete personal independence and sets an example that should be widely followed. It is the way to do business; and it is no reflection upon willing friends to go instead to a company. On the contrary, it is doing them a favor.

This bond was written by the

No Rhyme For Tipperary.

A poet once jumped to the conclusion that there was no rhyme to Tipperary and said so, whereupon an indignant Irishman, who chanced also to be a bit of a versifier, pounced upon him and poked fun at him in a lengthy poem, every other line of which rhymed or was supposed to rhyme with the place in question. Thus:

A bard there was in sad quandary
To find a rhyme for Tipperary.
Long labored he through January,
Yet found no rhyme for Tipperary;
Toiled every day in February,
But toiled in vain for Tipperary;
Searched Hebrew text and commentary,
But searched in vain for Tipperary.

And so on through many scores of stanzas, ending up with:

He paced about his aviary,
Burnt in despair his dictionary,
Blew up sky high his secretary,
And then in wrath and anger sware he
There was no rhyme for Tipperary.

Glasses and the Eyes.

Every one knows that in using a field glass it is necessary to adjust it to a proper focus. Suppose that you put one of the tubes at your focus and the other tube at a focus that suited some one else and then you looked through both tubes. You would have a more or less blurred vision, and if you kept on looking the chances are that you would feel giddy and get a headache. Now, the two eyes are supposed to have an equal natural focus and when by any chance that focus is unequal a headache results. The remedy is a pair of glasses or a single glass to make the eyes equal in power.

The Danes.

The Danes, or Northmen, first became prominent in European history in 783, when they began to ravage the north coast of France and southern shores of Great Britain. The daring of these hardy seamen was remarkable, for in their small ships they even penetrated the Mediterranean and became terrors to the seaboard population of Italy, Sicily and Greece. The first king of Denmark is said to have been Skiold, 60 B. C.

All It Needed.

"I made this potato salad for you myself," smiled she. "Isn't it delicious?"

"It would be," assented her husband, "if you had put a little more oil and vinegar and pepper and mustard seed and horseradish in the dressing and introduced a sliced egg or two and a few white onions and left half of the potatoes out."

Tolerance In Japan.

Westerners seem to find it inconceivable how the Japanese can maintain allegiance to different creeds at one and the same time. One broad explanation of this is that we as a nation are tolerant in mind, especially in matters pertaining to religion.—Japan Times of Tokyo.

The Wrong Jam.

Haskell—What's Bobby crying for? Mrs. Haskell—Oh, the poor boy caught his finger in the pantry door. Haskell—H'm! He evidently didn't get the jam he was looking for that time.—Pick-Me-Up.

Getting Back at Him.

Hewitt—I got even with the doctor who vaccinated me. Jewett—How did you do it? Hewitt—He ran for office and I scratched him.

Flattery is telling a man to his face that which was intended only for his tombstone.—Dallas News.

A Humane Appeal.

A humane citizen of Richmond, Ind., Mr. U. D. Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more lives than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Cures asthma, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, quinsy, hoarseness, and phthisic, stops hemorrhage of the lungs and builds them up. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson & Timberman.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causiug dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak Stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

Guaranteed under the food and drugs act June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1098.
